Note: Indiana F. Gooch (c1831-1853) is the second wife of Dudley Sneed Gooch (he is the son of Daniel & Nancey (Sneed) Gooch). The couple had a farm on Fox Creek in the Goshen District of Granville county. After her death, Dudley Gooch removed to a farm on the Tar River, near Springhope in Nash county, NC. Indiana was considerably younger than Dudley and married him at the age of 19 in 1850, the couple had two children: William Daniel Gooch, who later moved to Texas after the Civil War and Thomas Gooch who became a wholesale clothier in Baltimore, Maryland. Indiana is the daughter of William "Buck" Jones and his wife Nancy Ragland, both members of old Virginia and Granville families.

Death of an Aged Lady.

Miss Hannah Gooch, a most estimable lady, died near Berea, on Tuesday of last week, in the 89th year of her age, having lived a quiet life, highly respected by all of her acquaintances. She was in truth a good woman of many virtues, and was connected with one of the best families that ever lived in the county. There were 10 children, 8 of whom lived to be an average age of 75 years of age, and the deceased, as will be seen, lived 14 years longer. Mr. Amos Gooch, we believe the only one of the family left, is in his 84th year. She leaves a very large family connection to mourn her loss.

Note: Hannah A. Gooch (1800-1890) is the daughter of Daniel & Nancey (Sneed) Gooch of the Tar River District of Granville County. She never married, but cared for her widowed father until his death in 1837 and then kept house for her brother Amos Gooch. Today, the original Gooch homestead is now known as the Lena Gooch House, located on the Lucy Averette Road in Granville.

TUE APR 9 1936

Funeral services for Joseph Henry Gooch, prominent business man of Stem, who died as the result of a heart attack suffered at his home late Saturday night, were held at the Memorial Primitive Baptist church at Stem Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. E. L. Cobb of Wilson and Rev. D. V. Spangler of Cascade, Va., were in charge of the rites. Interment followed in the cemetery at Stem.

Mr. Gooch has been in declining health for some time, but his death was unexpected..

Born in Granville county in 1866, Mr. Gooch had lived in and around Stem all his life and attained prominence in business and civic life. He was president of the Bank of Stem until it was dissolved and was also owner of a general store.

Appointed postmaster in 1887, Mr. Gooch held that post, with the exception of a few years, until his death.

Surviving are his second wife, Mrs. Laura Reed Gooch, and one daughter, Janie Gold Gooch.

Mr. Gooch was born September 14, 1866, in Tally Ho township, near Shoofly, the son of Henry Spraggins and Jane Rebecca Gooch. He entered business as a grocery clerk and proved so proficient that he was taken into the company as a partner. After being connected with several business enterprises he became sole owner of a general store at Stem and was also appointed postmaster in 1894. During the 35 years that he held the position, it is said that no one ever asked for mail, or even for a stamp, without being waited on, regardless of the hour. He also had an enviable reputation as a merchant.

The Bank of Stem was organized in 1908. Mr. Gooch was elected president and retained the position until the bank went into voluntary liquidation in 1927.

In 1904 he was married to Miss leaving one daughter, Janie Gold. In 1910 he was married to Miss Laura A. Reed, of Winston-Salem, who survives.
Sudie H. Hunt, who died in 1908.

Mr. Gooch was distinctly a self-made man. He attended neighborhood schools for a short time, not more than 15 months, but the deficiency in formal education was offset by native ability, energy and strength of character. For 16 years he was a justice of the peace. He joined Camp Creek Primitive Baptist church in 1897 and he continued to exercise a lively interest in church affairs during the remainder of his life.

Miss Janie Gold Gooch, who has been on a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Susan Hunt, of Salem church section, returned home Monday accompanied by her cousins, Misses Sudie and Myrtle Crews of Oxford.

Mr. J. B. Cash, of the Knight-Myrers Tobacco Co., of Birmingham, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cash of Oxford Route.

Joseph Henry Gooch was not as well-known, perhaps, as other men in Granville county who have spent many years in public service, but the Stem villagers and others with whom he came in contact know best the high type character and untiring public service exemplified in his useful life. Death has removed one of the finest citizens the county had. LEDGER 4-12-35-

WILLIAM D. GOOCH.

Warrenton.—William D. Gooch, 85, died at his home, near Warrenton at 4 o'clock in the afternoon Sunday after an illness of nine months.

Son of the late William and Lucy Mitchell Gooch of Granville County, he was a member of the Reedy Creek Baptist Church. Funeral services were held from the home in Macon, Warren County on Monday afternoon with the Rev. J. F. Roach of Norlina officiating. Interment was in the family burying ground near the home.

Surviving are the following daughters Mrs. J. L. Williams of Richmond, Va., Mrs. H. S. Byrd of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. L. B. Robertson of Macon, Mrs. J. W. Harris of Macon and Mrs. C. W. Gooch of Warrenton. Two sisters, Mrs. G. A. Critcher of Greensboro and Mrs. E. L. Bowden of Tampa, Fla. Nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive. S. 24-71

GATHERED TO REST.

Death of Mrs. Mary Gooch on the 24th of June.

For two or three weeks the health of this estimable lady, wife of Mr. John Gooch, has been feeble. She however had the best of nursing and the best of medical attention, and the hope was indulged that she would be spared yet many years to her family and friends.

The decree of our Heavenly Father ordered otherwise and she departed this life on Thursday morning, 24th of June, about 5 o'clock. This was sad indeed, and the attending circumstances added to the melancholy sadness of her death. She was of a sweet, agreeable disposition, sprightly turn of mind, lovely form and face, and had the esteem and affection of all who knew her, and those who knew her best in her pious every day life, as a warm friend, a kind neighbor and devoted wife and mother, appreciated her most.

The sorrow felt at her premature death by her young and doubly afflicted husband no language can describe, for he followed to the grave at the same time the remains of a a little in-

Notes: Noah Cheatham Gooch and Lena Gooch are the children of William and Celestia (Cheatham) Gooch of the Tar River District of Granville county. William, in turn, is the son of Daniel Terry & Nancy (Hester) Gooch and therefore a grandson to Daniel & Nancey (Sneed) Gooch. Daniel T. Gooch (1807 - after 1895), the youngest son of Daniel Gooch, survived his siblings and inherited the Daniel Gooch place near Enon Church. This same farm is known today as the "Lena Gooch Place" and is also the location of the Gooch graveyard.
